Internships & a Pandemic

INTERNSHIPS

It is apparent that COVID-19 Pandemic is impacting everyone, everywhere. In an effort to salvage internship programs, some organizations are creating remote projects and developing processes to continue to utilize interns, while other organizations are postponing internships and some full time entry level positions.

In this environment, Michael True, HR Director-Insperty, offers this advice to students. In order to remain active and build your resume this summer:

- Keep your resume up to date,
- Seek out volunteer opportunities with companies you are interested,
- Inquire about shadow opportunities,
- Work/Volunteer in a different area than your major to show you have a variety of experience.

HANSHAKE (aka the new "Hire-A-Husky")

- Step 1: Go to the HBU Portal and click on the Career & Calling
- Step 2: Complete your profile and upload resume
- Step 3: Access nationwide jobs from approved employers
- And...stayed tune for more (appointments, interviewing, networking)
